Wandering in the Wilderness

0 Introduction

0.1 Key Idea

The story of the wandering in the wilderness teaches us how God tests his people and provides for his people in the life of faith.

0.2 Creedal Verse

“This man led them out, performing wonders and signs in Egypt and at the Red Sea and in the wilderness for forty years.” Acts 7:36

0.3 Metanarrative Summary

The eternal God created all things in six days. He made a good and perfect world. He made humans in his image to fill the earth and rule over creation. But humans rebelled against God and ruined God’s creation. God set to restore his world through his promise. God made a covenant with Abraham. He promised to bless all nations through Abraham. God kept his promises across the generations. God provided Abraham with a promised child, Isaac. God gave Isaac a wife and she bore twins, Jacob and Esau. God blessed Jacob and his sons, and the blessing continued to the next generation. God rescued Joseph, one of Jacob’s sons, and used him to rescue his family. God caused his people, the Israelites, to multiply in the land of Egypt; eventually, they became slaves. But, God raised up a deliverer, Moses, to deliver his people from their slavery. God sent judgment on the Egyptians with harsh plagues; in the final judgment, he passed over his people who covered their doorposts with the blood of a sacrificed lamb. Then, God delivered the Israelites by bringing them out of Egypt and crossing the Red Sea on dry land. God made a covenant with the Israelites and made them his people. God tested Israel in a series of wilderness wanderings and

0.4 Open Bible Story: Wandering in the Wilderness

God finished telling the Israelites about all the laws that they must obey because of his covenant with them. Then he led them away from Mount Sinai. He wanted to take them to the Promised Land. This land was also called Canaan. God went ahead of them in the pillar of cloud, and they followed him.

14-02

God had promised Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob that he would give the Promised Land to their descendants, but now there were many people groups living there. They were called Canaanites. The Canaanites did not worship or obey God. They worshiped false gods and did many evil things.

14-03

God told the Israelites, “After you go into the Promised Land, you must get rid of all the Canaanites there. Do not make peace with them and do not marry them. You must completely destroy all of their idols. If you do not obey me, you will end up worshiping their idols instead of me.”

14-04

When the Israelites reached the border of Canaan, Moses chose 12 men, one from each tribe of Israel. He gave the men instructions to go and spy on the land to see what it was like. They were also to spy on the Canaanites to see if they were strong or weak.

14-05

The 12 men traveled through Canaan for 40 days, and then they came back. They told the people, “The land is very fertile and the crops are plentiful!” But ten of the spies said, “The cities are very strong and the people are giants! If we attack them, they will certainly defeat us and kill us!”

14-06

Immediately, Caleb and Joshua, the other two spies, said, “It is true that the people of Canaan are tall and strong, but we can certainly defeat them! God will fight for us!”

14-07

But the people did not listen to Caleb and Joshua. They became angry with Moses and Aaron and said, “Why did you bring us to this horrible place? We should have stayed in Egypt. If we go into the land, we will die in battle, and the Canaanites will make our wives and children to be slaves.” The people wanted to choose a different leader to take them back to Egypt.

14-08

When the people said this, God was very angry. He came to the Tent of Meeting and said, “You have rebelled against me, so all of you will have to wander in the wilderness. Everyone who is 20 years or older will die there and never enter the land I am giving you. Only Joshua and Caleb will enter it.”

14-09

When the people heard God say this, they were sorry they had sinned. So they decided to attack the people of Canaan. Moses warned them not to go because God would not go with them, but they did not listen to him.

14-10

God did not go with them into this battle, so the Canaanites defeated them and killed many of them. Then the Israelites turned back from Canaan. For the next 40 years, they would wander through the wilderness.

14-11

During the 40 years that the people of Israel wandered in the wilderness, God provided for them. He gave them bread from heaven, called manna. He also sent flocks of quail (which are medium-sized birds) into their camp so they could have meat to eat. During all that time, God kept their clothes and sandals from wearing out.

14-12

To provide them with water to drink, God miraculously made it come out of a rock. But despite all this, the people of Israel complained and grumbled against God and against Moses. Even so, God was still faithful. He did what he promised that he would do for the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

14-13

Another time when the people did not have any water, God told Moses, “Speak to the rock, and water will come out of it.” But Moses did not speak to the rock. Instead, he hit the rock twice with a stick. In this way, he dishonored God. Water came out of the rock for everyone to drink, but God was angry with Moses. He said, “Because you did this, you will not enter the Promised Land.”

14-14

After the Israelites had wandered in the wilderness for 40 years, all of those who had rebelled against God were dead. Then God led the people to the edge of the Promised Land again. Moses was now very old, so God chose Joshua to lead the people. God also promised Moses that one day he would send to the people another prophet like Moses.

14-15

Then God told Moses to go to the top of a mountain so he could see the Promised Land. Moses saw the Promised Land but God did not permit him to enter it. Then Moses died, and the Israelites mourned for 30 days. Joshua became their new leader. Joshua was a good leader because he trusted and obeyed God.

1.2 Translation Questions

Use the following translation questions to understand specific details of the passage. Discuss how you might translate these specific elements of the story.

14-01 all the laws that they must obey God gave the Israelites many more commands in addition to the Ten Commandments. The Israelites were expected to obey all these laws, not just some of them. How would you express all the laws that they must obey to mean all the commands God gave the Israelites which they were supposed to obey?

because of his covenant with them The word because explains the reason the Israelites must obey the God's laws was they were in a covenant relationship with God. How would you express because of his covenant with them to mean the reason the Israelites must obey all the laws God told them was the covenant God made with them?

14-02 God had promised God made a promise to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob to give their descendants the Promised Land. This promise was made many years ago and not at the time of this story. God would fulfill this promise to Abraham's descendants. The Israelites are Abraham's descendants. This statement gives background that summarizes what has already happened in previous stories. How would you express God had promised to mean God already made the promise years ago to give the Promised Land to Abraham's descendants?

They were called Canaanites The Canaanites were the people groups who lived in the Promised Land, the land of Canaan. They are introduced in the story. We learn that they did not worship or obey God. They worshiped false gods and did many evil things. How would you express They were called Canaanites to clearly indicate the Canaanites as those who lived in the Promised Land and did not follow God?

14-03 you must get rid of all the Canaanites there This is a polite way to say that they were to kill or drive out all the Canaanites out of the Promised Land. God commanded the Israelites to get all the Canaanites out of the land who were living there. How would you express you must get rid of all the Canaanites there as a polite way of saying the Israelites must remove all of the Canaanites from the land by killing them or driving them out of the land?

Do not make peace with them God forbid the Israelites from living peacefully among or alongside the Canaanites. God did not want the Israelites to make a promise or treaty to live peacefully with them. How would you express Do not make peace with them to mean God forbid the Israelites from living peacefully among or alongside the Canaanites?

If you do not obey me, you will end up worshiping their idols The word If introduces the situation that the Israelites would in time disobey God by worshiping idols if the Israelites did not obey God by driving out the Canaanites. If the Israelites became friends with the Canaanites and did not destroy the idols, they would be tempted to worship those idols instead of God. How would you express If you do not obey me, you will end up worshiping their idols to mean the Israelites would eventually disobey God and worship idols if they did not obey God by driving out the Canaanites from the land?

14-04 border A border is a line, or boundary, separating two countries. What words in your language mean border as in a line, or boundary, separating two countries?

spy To spy is to secretly get information about something or to secretly learn about something. What words in your language mean spy as in to secretly get information about something without other people noticing?

go and spy The Israelites chosen for this mission were to leave the place where they were camped, enter the land of Canaan, and secretly gain information about the land. How would you express go and spy to mean as a command telling the twelve Israelites to leave the place where they were camped, enter the land of Canaan, and secretly gain information about the land?

to see if they were strong or weak The spies were supposed to find out how powerful the Canaanite armies were. They wanted to know if the Canaanites were prepared to fight against them. How would you express to see if they were strong or weak to mean the spies were to go in the land to discover, or find out, if the Canaanite armies were powerful or not powerful?

14-05 The land is very fertile The land was extremely good for growing food. How would you express The land is very fertile to mean the land was extremely productive in growing food?

the crops are plentiful The land produced a lot of food and yielded full harvests. How would you express the crops were plentiful to mean the land produced a lot of food and yielded full harvests?

The cities are very strong The cities had strong walls around them, so it would be very difficult for the Israelites to attack them. How would you express The cities are very strong to mean the cities were fortified with strong walls that would make them hard to attack?

the people are giants This was not simply referring to unusually tall people, but a particular race of people that were far larger than even the tallest normal people. The Israelites spies said the Canaanites were much taller and stronger than they were. How would you express the people are giants to mean the Israelite spies said the Canaanites were far larger than even the tallest normal people and were far stronger than even the strongest normal people?

If we attack them, they will certainly defeat us and kill us! This is a strong statement that emphasizes that the Israelites were certain the Canaanites would defeat them in battle. How would you express If we attack them, they will certainly defeat us and kill us! as a strong statement that the spies believed if they attacked the Canaanites they would surely lose the battle and die?

14-06 Immediately Caleb and Joshua spoke right after the other spies gave their report. How would you express Immediately to mean something that happens right away after something else without delay?

but we can certainly defeat them The word but indicates that there was an exceptional reason why the Canaanites would be defeated rather than the Israelites. Caleb and Joshua acknowledged that the Canaanites were tall and strong. Even though the Canaanites were tall and strong, Caleb and Joshua said that the Israelites would beat them in battle. This is a different result than people would normally think would happen. How would you express but we can certainly defeat them to mean Caleb and Joshua were confident that the Israelites would surely beat the Canaanites in battle even though they were tall and strong?

God will fight for us! Caleb and Joshua made a strong statement that God would battle alongside the Israelites and help the Israelites defeat the Canaanites. How would you express God will fight for us! as a strong statement that emphasizes God would battle alongside the Israelites and help the Israelites defeat the Canaanites?

14-07 But the people did not listen The word But indicates that the refusal of the people to listen was different/opposite to the reasoning of Caleb and Joshua. How would you express But the people did not listen to mean the people not listening was different/opposite of what Caleb and Joshua told them?

Why did you bring us to this horrible place? The people were not expecting an answer from Moses or from God. The news about the Canaanites made them think the place was terrible. Their question expressed that they thought the place was terrible and they wished that they had never come there. How would you express the question Why did you bring us to this horrible place? to mean the people thought the plan was terrible and they wish they had never come there?

14-08 He came to God did not appear as a person, but came in some other form that showed his glory and power. How would you express He came to to mean God appeared in a way that showed his glory and power?

You have rebelled against me God said that the Israelites refusal to follow God's instructions and remove the Canaanites from the land was rebellion against God. To rebel means oppose God by rejecting his authority and what he says. How would you express You have rebelled against me to mean God said the Israelites opposed God by rejecting his authority and not doing what he said?

so all of you The word so explains the consequence of the people rebelling against God was that they would wander in the wilderness. How would you express so all of you to mean the consequence/result of the Israelites rebelling against God was to wander in the wilderness?

to wander in the wilderness God would lead the people around in the wilderness with no specific destination until all of the adults who rebelled against him died. How would you express to wander in the wilderness to mean Israel would travel around barren and uncultivated land with no specific destination or direction?

14-09 When the people heard God say this The word When explains that the people had become sorry they had sinned at the moment they heard God words of judgment. How would you express When the people heard God say this to mean the people had become sorry they had sinned against God by not conquering the Canaanites at the moment they heard God words of judgment?

Moses warned them not to go Moses told them not to go to fight against the Canaanites because they would be in danger if they did that. How would you express Moses warned them not to go to mean Moses told them in advance that they should not go into Canaan and would be in danger if they chose to go into Canaan?

God would not go with them God would not be with them to help them. Because of the Israelites' disobedience, God withdrew from them his presence, protection, and power. How would you express God would not go with them to mean God refused to help the Israelites fight the Canaanites?

but they did not listen to him The Israelites did not obey Moses. They went to attack the Canaanites anyway. The word but indicates that the Israelites deciding to attack the Canaanites is opposite/different than what Moses had warned them. How would you express but they did not listen to him to mean the Israelites decision to attack the Canaanites was opposite/different than what Moses warned them?

14-10 God did not go with them into this battle God did not help them in this fight. How would you express God did not go with them into this battle to mean God did not help the Israelites fight in this battle against the Canaanites?

turned back from Canaan The Israelites left Canaan and went back into the wilderness where they were before. How would you express turned back from Canaan to mean to leave Canaan and go back in the direction they were before?

14-15 God did not permit him to enter Moses was able to see the Promised Land even though God did not allow him to enter it. How would you express God did not permit him to enter to mean God did not allow Moses to enter the Promised Land?

because he trusted and obeyed God The word because indicates Joshua's trust in and obedience to God is the reason he was a good leader. How would you express because he trusted and obeyed God to mean the reason Joshua was a good leader was his faith in and obedience to God?

2 Theological Dialogue: Discussing the Meaning of the Story

Take time to explore the meaning of this story together as a community. Use the following discussions as a way to grasp what truth the story teaches.

2.1 Discourse Questions

Use the following discourse questions to understand the meaning of the story. Pay attention to how the story itself addresses each question or theme.

How did God prepare the Israelites to enter the Promised Land, the land of Canaan? (14-1, 14-2) God made a covenant with Israel at Mount Sinai. He gave the Israelites laws to obey. (14-1)

God led his people the long distance from Mount Sinai to the Promised Land. God went ahead of them in a pillar of cloud. The Israelites followed him. (14-1)

God promised to give the Promised Land to the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. God was fulfilling these ancient promises through Israel. (14-2)

What did God tell the Israelites to do to take the Promised Land? (14-2, 14-3, 14-4, 14-5) God commanded the Israelites to remove the Canaanites from the Promised Land. God forbid the Israelites to make peace with the Canaanites. God forbid the Israelites from marrying the Canaanites. God told the Israelites to destroy all their idols. (14-3)

God warned the Israelites about the Canaanites. Canaanites were living in the Promised Land. They did not worship or obey God. They worshiped false gods and did many evil things. If the Israelites did not remove the Canaanites from the land, the Israelites would end up worshipping idols instead of God. (14-2, 14-3)

God told the Israelites to send spies into the land. The Israelites sent twelve spies to see what the land was like and to see how strong the Canaanites were. They spied the land for 40 days. (14-4, 14-5)

Why did the people fail to attack the Canaanites and take the Promised Land? (14-5, 14-6, 14-7, 14-8, 14-9, 14-10) When the Israelite spies came back, they told the people how the land was fertile and the crops were plentiful. The Promised Land was a good and abundant land. (14-5)

Fear: Ten spies discouraged the people from conquering the land. They said the cities were strong/fortified and the Canaanites were giants. They told the people that they would die if they attacked the Canaanites. (14-5)

Unbelief: Two spies, Caleb and Joshua, encouraged the people to obey God and attack the Canaanites. Caleb and Joshua agree that the Canaanites were tall and strong, but they said God was stronger. The Israelites listened to the ten spies and did not listen to Caleb and Joshua. (14-6, 14-7)

Anger: The Israelites became angry with Moses and Aaron and wanted a new leader. (14-7)

Complaint: Even though they were freed from Egypt, the Israelites complained. They wanted to go back to Egypt. The Israelites thought it would be better to be slaves in Egypt than to be free and follow God's commands. (14-7)

Rebellion: The Israelites rebelled against God by not going attacking the Canaanites and taking the land of Canaan. God was angry with his people and disciplined them. The Israelites would wander in the wilderness for forty years until that rebellious generation (everyone 20 years and older) died in the wilderness. (14-8)

Stubbornness: When they heard this punishment, the people were sorry for their sin. They decided to attack the Canaanites even though Moses warned them that God would not fight with them. The Israelites did this anyway and they were defeated by the Canaanites. (14-9, 14-10)

How did God provide for the Israelites in the wilderness? (14-11, 14-12) Even though God disciplined/punished the Israelites to wander the wilderness for forty years, God provided for his people during this time. God did not forsake/abandon his people even though they rebelled against him. (14-11)

God provided for the Israelites for forty years while they wandered in the wilderness. God's care for his people lasted for a long time.(14-11)

God provided bread for the Israelites to eat. God caused bread from heaven (i.e., manna) to appear. (14-11)

God provided meat for the Israelites to eat. God sent quail into their camps for food. (14-11)

God provided clothing for the Israelites. During their years in the wilderness, the sandals and clothing of the Israelites did not wear out. (14-11)

God provided water for the Israelites to drink. One time, God miraculously caused water to come out a rock. Another time, God told Moses to speak to a rock for water to come out. Moses disobeyed God by hitting the rock, but water still came out. (14-12)

God was faithful to fulfill his promises. Even when the Israelites grumbled and complained against God, God kept the promise he made to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. (14-12)

How did God provide leaders for the Israelites? (14-13, 14-14, 14-15)

Moses disobeyed God's command. God told him to speak to a rock and water would come out of it. Instead, Moses hit the rock twice. He disobeyed God. As a result, Moses would not be allowed to enter the Promised Land. God held Israel's leaders accountable to his commands. (14-13)

After forty years of wandering in the wilderness, God led the Israelites to the Promised Land again. At this time, the first generation of Israelites who rebelled against God had died in the wilderness. God was the primary leader of Israel. (14-14)

Moses was very old and near his death. God allowed Moses to see the Promised Land but he did not allow Moses to enter it. God showed kindness to Moses even though Moses had to bear consequences for his disobedience. (14-14, 14-15)

God chose Joshua to replace Moses as Israel's leader. After Moses died, Joshua became Israel's new leader. He was a godly leader who trusted and obeyed God. God raises up godly and faithful leaders for his work. (14-14, 14-15)

God promised that one day he would send a prophet like Moses. This promise would be fulfilled by God's Son, Jesus. (14-14)

2.2 Theological Questions

Answer the following theology questions as a community. Discuss what truths this story teaches.

1. Why do people disobey God? What does Israel's failure to take Promised Land tell us about causes of disobedience?
2. How can people mature their faith in God? How can God's discipline of and provision for Israel help mature the faith in God?
3. Why are godly leadership important for God's people to grow in their faith? What examples of godly and ungodly leadership do we see in this story?

2. Accurate: Is anything missing from your translation of this passage that is a part of the meaning of the source text? If some part of the meaning is missing from your translation, add it.
3. Accurate: Does any meaning in your translation of this passage appear to be different than the meaning of the source text? If the meaning is different, try changing your translation so that the meaning remains the same.
4. Natural: Does anything sound unnatural to how you would say it in your language? If portions of the passage sound unnatural in your language, try to make them sound the way you would say it in your language while staying true to the meaning of the source text.
5. Clear: Is anything unclear or confusing in your translation that confuses the meaning of the source text? If portions of the passage are unclear or confusing, revise them to clearly communicate the meaning of the source text.
6. Consistent: How consistent is your translation within the passage and with other passages? If portions of the passage need to be made consistent or if you need to revise translations of other passages, make these adjustments.

Record Feedback After discussing the checking questions above as a translation community, record any feedback on your translation draft. Pay attention for parts of your translation that are translated well and parts of your translation that need correction.

Discuss and Revise After gathering feedback on your draft, discuss it together with your translation community and make appropriate revisions in your translation.

Record Translation Decisions As a community, discuss some of the most noteworthy translation decisions in your draft. Summarize each decision and explain the reasons your community decided on that translation. You should update these decisions each time you check your draft with various groups of people.

You should measure the quality of your translation draft. You can record translation decisions to make it clear why you translated things a certain way. Translation decisions can help your translation team and the surrounding community be a part of the translation process.

How can you know the quality of your translation?

1. Measure the translation by marks/standards of quality (i.e., clear, accurate, natural, church-approved)
2. Test the translation with others and record feedback and conversations from in the field (i.e., church and community check)
3. Compare and contrast the translation with the source text (i.e., meaning of text and notes) and alternatives (i.e., other translation choices)
4. Explain the reasons why you translated a particular portion of the text.

Example Sentences That Help Explain Your Translation Decision Use the following example sentences to help explain your translation decisions:

1. The original text literally says/means, so we translated the term in this way...
2. We originally decided to translate the biblical term in with this term, but we changed it because...
3. When our translation team discussed the biblical term, this is what we talked about...
4. The term is [clear, accurate, natural, consistent] because...
5. The community understands this term it to mean...
6. We considered these other terms. We did not use these terms because...
7. When we checked this in the church, we learned...
8. When we checked this in the community, we learned...

Example of Translation Decision

In OBS 01-07 we decided to translate blessed like this: [actual translation]. We decided this translation because of these reasons:

1. The word [actual translation] means to cause good things to happen to someone or something. This term is used when a person desires someone or something to prosper or flourish. This term does not refer to magic or witchcraft.
2. When we checked this word with other believers, they said it describes God showing his kindness and favor on someone or something. These are some of the terms that we did not decide to use...
3. Many of our people will understand this word. When we discussed this phrase with the surrounding community, we discovered it was a natural way to describe God causing good and beneficial things to happen.

4 Ministry Practice: Serving the Church with the Story

Now that you have a draft of this story, consider how this story can encourage other believers in their faith. After ministering this story to others, you will also perform a community check of your translation draft.

4.1 Church Ministry

Reflect on how this story can edify and mature the Christian community. Design a way to minister this story to your church community.

Ministry Preparation: Take time to consider how you could minister this story to others. Record some ministry ideas below.

Ministry Implementation: Minister this story to a group of believers as you had planned. Use the information in this study to help develop a teaching/lesson or lead a discussion of this story to other believers. Record your ministry plan below.

Ministry Reflection: Think about what you learned from ministering this story to other believers. Reflect on your experience below.

4.2 Church Community Check

After teaching or ministering this story to the church, check the translation quality with the church community. Record any feedback from your checking experience.

Create Checking Questions You can use Translation Questions to check you draft. Each Translation Question explains the meaning of a specific part of the story and asks you to consider how you would translate that part of the story in your own language. Change each Translation Question into a Checking Question by asking the following questions. The first question asks you to identify how each specific phrase was translated in your language. The second question asks people in the church to determine if your translation of the phrase expresses the meaning clearly, accurately, and naturally. Look at the following examples to see how to change Translation Questions into Checking Questions:

Translation Question Example 1 to proclaim the good news about Jesus Paul and Silas traveled to Philippi for the purpose of preaching the gospel. The gospel is the good news that Jesus saves people from their sins if they will believe in Jesus. How would you express to proclaim the good news about Jesus to mean to tell other people the message about how Jesus can save people from their sins?

Translation Question Example 2 a merchant Paul and Silas met a woman named Lydia at the place by the river. She owned a business and sold items to make money. How would you express a merchant to mean a business owner who sells items for a profit?

Translation Question Example 3 so Paul and Silas baptized them The jailer and his whole family followed Paul's instructions. They believed in Jesus. The result of this was Paul and Silas baptized them. How would you express so Paul and Silas baptized them to mean the result of the jailer and his family believing in Jesus that Paul and Silas baptized all of them?

You can change these into Checking Questions like this:

Checking Question Example 1 to proclaim the good news about Jesus How did you translate to proclaim the good news about Jesus? Does it mean to tell other people the message about how Jesus can save people from their sins?

Checking Question Example 2 a merchant How did you translate a merchant? Does it mean a business owner who sells items for a profit?

Checking Question Example 3 so Paul and Silas baptized them How did you translate so Paul and Silas baptized them? Does it mean the result of the jailer and his family believing in Jesus that Paul and Silas baptized all of them?

Record Feedback Discuss the Checking Questions with your church community, and record any feedback on your translation draft. Pay attention for parts of your translation that are translated well and parts of your translation that need correction.

Discuss and Revise After gathering feedback on your draft, discuss it together with your translation community and make appropriate revisions in your translation.

Record Translation Decisions *Update your translation decisions and record and new any noteworthy observations on the quality of your draft.

5 Missional Outreach: Sharing the Truth of the Story

After sharing this story with others, check the translation quality with the wider language community. Record any feedback from your checking experience.

5.1 Mission Engagement

Consider how you will witness this story to unbelievers. Design a way to share this story and engage them in what it teaches about Christianity and the gospel.

Witness Preparation: Take time to consider how you will witness this narrative to unbelievers. Record some ideas below.

Witness Implementation: Share this story with an unbeliever. Use the information in this study to help develop a teaching/lesson or lead a discussion of this story to other believers. Record your ministry plan below.

Witness Reflection: Think about what you learned from ministering this story to unbelievers. Reflect on your experience below.

5.2 Sociolinguistic Check

After sharing this story with the language community, check your translation draft with the surrounding community. Record your observations.

Checking Approach After witnessing this story to unbelievers, use one of the following methods to check the translation of this story. Consider using the Observation Questions to check your translation draft or come up with your own quality checking questions.

Read-Retell Check: Read your draft to those the community and ask them to retell the passage. Be attentive for any portions of the passage that are unclear, unnatural, or inaccurate.

Comprehension Questions Checklist: Read the draft of the passage and ask a list of comprehension questions to make sure the passage is being rightly understood. You can use the Observation Questions in this guide or come up with your own questions. Then, record any insights or issues that arise.

Discussion Group: Develop key questions to ask about the passage (both formational and translational). Read the passage and have a group discussion about the passage, paying attention to issues that need to be addressed, edited, and revised.

Record Feedback After sharing your draft with language community, discuss the Observations Questions, and record any feedback on your translation draft. Pay attention for parts of your translation that are translated well and parts of your translation that need correction.

Discuss and Revise After gathering feedback on your draft, discuss it together with your translation community and make appropriate revisions in your translation.

6 Conclusion

As a translation community, take time to reflect on all that was learned in studying, drafting, and checking this story. Celebrate all that God has taught you as a community. Then, submit your revised draft and checking summaries to network leaders for further review.
