The story God's New Covenant teaches us that Jesus brings in the blessings of a new way of being restored to relationship with God in the New Covenant.

0.2 Creedal Verse

"Therefore he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, since a death has occurred that redeems them from the transgressions committed under the first covenant." Hebrews 9:15

0.3 Metanarrative Summary

The eternal God created all things in six days. He made a good and perfect world. He made humans in his image to fill the earth and rule over creation. But humans rebelled against God and ruined God's creation. God set to restore his world through his promise. God made a covenant with Abraham. He promised to bless all nations through Abraham. God kept his promises across the generations. God provided Abraham with a promised child, Isaac. God gave Isaac a wife and she bore twins, Jacob and Esau. God blessed Jacob and his sons, and the blessing continued to the next generation. God rescued Joseph, one of Jacob's sons, and used him to rescue his family. God caused his people, the Israelites, to multiply in the land of Egypt; eventually, they became slaves. But, God raised up a deliverer, Moses, to deliver his people from their slavery. God judged the Egyptians with harsh plagues; in the final judgment, he passed over his people who covered their doorposts with the blood of a sacrificed lamb. Then, God delivered the Israelites by bringing them out of Egypt and crossing the Red Sea on dry land. God made a covenant with the Israelites and made them his people. God tested Israel in a series of wilderness wanderings and eventually brought his people into the promised land of Canaan. God raised up deliverers to lead Israel and rescue them from their enemies. God formed Israel into a kingdom. He made a covenant with King David and promised to send a king that would rule his people forever. Many of Israel's kings were evil and the kingdom of Israel divided into two kingdoms. God sent prophets to warn his people of God's judgment and call them to repent. When Israel did not repent, God sent his people into exile. After many years, he brought them back to the land. Throughout the Old Testament, God promised to send his Messiah to deliver his people from their sin. After many years, the prophet John was born. He would prepare people for the coming Messiah. At the perfect time, God sent his Son, Jesus, to be born of a virgin Mary. When John and Jesus grew up, John baptized Jesus as a sign that Jesus was God's beloved Son. Jesus endured all manner of temptation without ever sinning. When he was thirty years old, he launched a public ministry of preaching, teaching, and healing. He taught his disciples about the life of compassion, sacrifice, and forgiveness. He performed many miracles: he fed a crowd of five thousand, he walked on water, he healed the sick, and he cast out demons. He proclaimed to people the nature of real faith, God's kingdom, and the how fallen humans can be restored in relationship with God. Toward the end of his ministry, Jesus revealed his power and glory to his disciples and raised a dead man to life. Jesus was betrayed by one of his disciples and put on trial before a Roman governor. Jesus was sentenced to death and crucified on a cross. Three days later, Jesus rose again from the dead. After meeting with many of his disciples, Jesus went back to heaven. The Holy Spirit empowered Jesus' followers and formed them into his church. Jesus' disciples, like Peter and John, performed miracles and preached the good news about Jesus. New leaders like Stephen and Philip served the church and preached about Jesus. Even Saul, a persecutor of Jesus' followers, became a Christian and preached the gospel to many people. Jesus is the promised Messiah and brings in blessings of a New Covenant.

0.4 Open Bible Story: God's New Covenant

49-01

An angel told Mary, a young woman, that she would give birth to God's Son. She was still a virgin, but the Holy Spirit came to her and made her become pregnant. She gave birth to a son and named him Jesus. Therefore, Jesus is both God and human.

49-02

Jesus did many miracles that show that he is God. He walked on water and stopped storms. He healed many sick people and drove demons out of many others. He raised dead people to life, and he turned five loaves of bread and two small fish into enough food to feed over 5,000 people.

49-03

Jesus was also a great teacher. Everything he taught, he taught correctly. People should do what he told them to do because he is the Son of God. For example, he taught that you need to love other people the same way you love yourself.

49-04

He also taught that you need to love God more than you love anything else, including your possessions.

49-05

Jesus said that it is better to be in God's kingdom than to have anything else in the world. God must save you from your sins in order for you to enter his kingdom.

49-06

Jesus said that some people will accept him. God will save these people. However, other people will not accept him. He also said that some people are like good soil. Because they accept the good news about Jesus, God saves them. However, other people are like the hard soil on a path. God's Word is like seed that falls on the path, but nothing grows there. These people reject the message about Jesus. They refuse to enter into his kingdom.

49-07

Jesus taught that God loves sinners very much. He wants to forgive them and to make them his children.

49-08

Jesus also told us that God hates sin. Because Adam and Eve sinned, all of their descendants also sin. Every person in the world sins and is far from God. Everyone is an enemy of God.

49-09

But God loved everyone in the world in this way: he gave his only Son so that God will not punish those who believe in Jesus. Instead, believers will live with him forever.

49-10

You deserve to die because you have sinned. It would be right for God to punish you, but Jesus took the punishment for sin in our place. God punished Jesus by killing him on a cross.

49-11

Jesus never sinned. He accepted the punishment for sin, including the worst possible death. In this way, he was the perfect sacrifice to take away your sins and the sins of every person in the world. Jesus sacrificed himself to God, so God will forgive any sin, even terrible sins, of the people who believe in Jesus.

49-12

Even if you do many very good things, this will not make God save you. There is nothing you can do on your own to become friends with him. Instead, you should believe that Jesus is the Son of God, that he died on the cross instead of you, and that God raised him to life again. If you believe this, God will forgive you for having sinned.

49-13

God will save everyone who believes in Jesus and accepts him as their Master. But he will not save those who do not believe in him. It does not matter if you are rich or poor, man or woman, old or young, or where you live. God loves you and wants you to believe in Jesus so he can be a friend to you.

49-14

Jesus is calling you to believe in him and to be baptized. Do you believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the only Son of God? Do you believe that you are a sinner and that you deserve God's punishment for your sin? Do you believe that Jesus died on the cross to take away your sins?

49-15

If you believe in Jesus and confess what he has done for you, you are a follower of Jesus! Satan no longer rules you in his kingdom of darkness. God is now ruling over you in his kingdom of light. God has enabled you to no longer sin as you used to do. He has given you a new, right way of living.

49-16

If you are a follower of Jesus, God has forgiven your sins because of what Jesus did. Now, God considers you to be a close friend instead of an enemy.

49-17

If you are a friend of God and a servant of Jesus the Master, you will want to obey what Jesus teaches you. Even though you are a follower of Jesus, Satan will still tempt you to sin. But God always does what he says he will do. He says that if you confess your sins, he will forgive you. He will give you strength to fight against sin.

God tells you to pray and to study his word. He also tells you to worship him together with other followers of Jesus. You must also tell other people what he has done for you. If you do all these things, you will become a strong friend of his.

The Holy Spirit caused Mary to become pregnant with Jesus. Mary was a virgin, so you would not expect her to become pregnant. Instead, the Holy Spirit caused her to become pregnant. Nothing sexual happened. God the Holy Spirit caused a miracle to happen by making a virgin pregnant with a child. How would you express the Holy Spirit came to her and made her become pregnant to mean the Holy Spirit caused a miracle to happen by making the virgin Mary pregnant with Jesus?

49-02 raised dead people to life One of the miracles Jesus did was to bring dead people back to life. How would you express raised dead people to life to mean Jesus caused dead people to become alive again?

he turned five loaves of bread and two small fish into enough food to feed over 5,000 people Jesus fed over 5,000 people with five loaves of bread and two small fish. This was a miracle. Jesus caused this small portion of food to last to feed the large crowd of people. How would you express he turned five loaves of bread and two small fish into enough food to feed over 5,000 people to mean Jesus used only five loaves of bread and two small fish to feed a crowd that was more than 5,000 people?

49-03 Jesus was also a great teacher Jesus taught people the truth. Everything that Jesus said was true. How would you express Jesus was also a great teacher to mean Jesus was a very important and an excellent teacher?

to love other people the same way you love yourself Jesus told people to care for others to the same degree (as much as) that they care for themselves. How would you express to love other people the same way you love yourself to mean to show genuine concern and care for others the same amount that people care for themselves?

49-04 love God more than you love anything else Jesus taught his followers to love God more than all things. How would you express love God more than you love anything else to mean that we should love God most of all?

49-05 it is better to be in God's kingdom than to have anything else in the world Jesus compared being in God's kingdom with having things in the world. Jesus taught that being a part of God's kingdom is better than having anything else. How would you express it is better to be in God's kingdom than to have anything else in the world to mean people should desire to be a part of God's kingdom more than anything else because being a part of God's kingdom is most?

49-06 other people will not Jesus taught that God saves people who accept Jesus. However, God does not save people who do not accept Jesus. How would you express other people will not to mean other people will not accept Jesus and therefore will not be saved?

God's Word is like seed The message of salvation is compared to a seed that is sown on the ground. The seed has the potential for life and growth, but only grows if it falls on good soil. How would you express God's Word is like seed to mean the message of Jesus saving people from their sins is similar to seed that is scattered on the ground?

49-07 to make them his children God wants to forgive the sins of people and cause them to become a part of his family. When people believe in Jesus, God brings these believers into his family and makes them his children. How would you express to make them his children to mean God wants to make people a part of his family when they believe in Jesus?

49-08 Every person in the world sins and is far from God All people disobey God's commands and do evil things. Sinful people do not have a close or personal relationship with God as friends who have. Instead, believers will live with him forever God sacrificed Jesus so that he would not punish believers in Jesus. The opposite of punishing sinners is allowing them to live forever with God. Also, those who believe in God still sin, so you would expect them to be punished. Instead, they will live with God forever. How would you express Instead, believers will live with him forever to mean rather than God punishing people who believe in Jesus, God did the opposite by allowing them to live with God forever?

so God will forgive any sin Jesus offered himself as a sacrifice to God. Jesus was punished so that people who believed in Jesus would not be punished. The result of this is God will forgive any kind of sin that people commit if they believe in Jesus. How would you express so God will forgive any sin to mean the result of Jesus sacrificing himself is God will forgive people of all kinds of sins if they believe in Jesus?

49-12 If you believe this God does not forgive the sins of everyone. God forgives the sins of people who believe Jesus is God's Son who died on the cross as a sacrifice for sin and rose again from the dead. How would you express If you believe this to mean God will forgive you of your sin on the condition that you believe that Jesus is the Son of God who died on the cross and rose again from the dead?

49-13 But he will not save those who do not believe in him God saves everyone who believes. But people who do not believe are excluded from the everyone. How would you express But he will not save those who do not believe in him to mean God will only save those who believe in Jesus and accept him as their Master and he will not save those who do not believe in him?

so he can be a friend to you God loves people and wants them to believe in Jesus. The result of believing in Jesus is God can be a friend with those people who believe in Jesus. How would you express so he can be a friend to you to mean the result of believing in Jesus is people would no longer be enemies with God but they would have peace with God as friends have between each other?

How would you express God is now ruling over you in his kingdom of light to mean God rules over people who believe in Jesus in a way that is righteous and good like the light?

49-16 If you are a follower of Jesus God does not forgive the sins of all people. God forgives the sins of people who have believed in Jesus and become followers of him. How would you express If you are a follower of Jesus to mean God has already forgiven the sins of those people who have become followers of Jesus?

God considers you to be a close friend All people are sinful and enemies of God. When people believe in Jesus this relationship changes. God regards people who believe in Jesus as friends. How would you express God considers you to be a close friend to mean God thinks of people who believe in Jesus as loving friends who are peace with one another?

49-17 If you are a friend of God and a servant of Jesus the Master People do not naturally want to obey Jesus. However, people who believe in Jesus have become a friend of God and a servant of Jesus. The result of this change is they will want to obey Jesus. How would you express If you are a friend of God and a servant of Jesus the Master to mean people who have become a friend of God and servant of Jesus will desire to do the things that Jesus commands?

if you confess your sins God does not forgive the sins of all people. He only forgives the sins of people who acknowledge to God that they have done evil things against God's commands and who ask God to forgive them of their sins. How would you express if you confess your sins to mean God promises to forgive the sins of people who admit to God what they have done wrong?

49-18 You must also tell other people what he has done for you God wants people who believe in Jesus to tell other people how God has saved them.

This means telling other people who Jesus is and how he is a sacrifice for sins. How would you express You must also tell other people what he has done for you to mean God commands believers in Jesus to tell other people how Jesus saved them from their sins and how he can save them from their sins as well?

Read the passage aloud and discuss the checking questions with other members of your translation community. You might need to reread portions (or the whole) of the biblical passage multiple times as you answer each of these questions. Record answers to these questions below.

Team Checking Questions Use the following questions to check your translation draft for accuracy, clarity, and naturalness.

1. Accurate: Has anything been added to your translation of this passage that is not a part of the meaning of the source text? If additions exist, are they included only added to clarify meaning (such as implied information)?
2. Accurate: Is anything missing from your translation of this passage that is a part of the meaning of the source text? If some part of the meaning is missing from your translation, add it.
3. Accurate: Does any meaning in your translation of this passage appear to be different than the meaning of the source text? If the meaning is different, try changing your translation so that the meaning remains the same.

6. Consistent: How consistent is your translation within the passage and with other passages? If portions of the passage need to be made consistent or if you need to revise translations of other passages, make these adjustments.

Record Feedback After discussing the checking questions above as a translation community, record any feedback on your translation draft. Pay attention for parts of your translation that are translated well and parts of your translation that need correction.

Discuss and Revise After gathering feedback on your draft, discuss it together with your translation community and make appropriate revisions in your translation.

Record Translation Decisions As a community, discuss some of the most noteworthy translation decisions in your draft. Summarize each decision and explain the reasons your community decided on that translation. You should update these decisions each time you check your draft with various groups of people.

You should measure the quality of your translation draft. You can record translation decisions to make it clear why you translated things a certain way. Translation decisions can help your translation team and the surrounding community be a part of the translation process.

How can you know the quality of your translation?

1. Measure the translation by marks/standards of quality (i.e., clear, accurate, natural, church-approved)
2. Test the translation with others and record feedback and conversations from in the field (i.e., church and community check)
3. Compare and contrast the translation with the source text (i.e., meaning of text and notes) and alternatives (i.e., other translation choices)
4. Explain the reasons why you translated a particular portion of the text.

Example of Translation Decision

In OBS 01-07 we decided to translate blessed like this: [actual translation]. We decided on this translation because of these reasons:

1. The word [actual translation] means to cause good things to happen to someone or something. This term is used when a person desires someone or something to prosper or flourish. This term does not refer to magic or witchcraft.

2. When we checked this word with other believers, they said it describes God showing his kindness and favor on someone or something. These are some of the terms that we did not decide to use...
3. Many of our people will understand this word. When we discussed this phrase with the surrounding community, we discovered it was a natural way to describe God causing good and beneficial things to happen.

Create Checking Questions You can use Translation Questions to check your draft. Each Translation Question explains the meaning of a specific part of the story and asks you to consider how you would translate that part of the story in your own language. Change each Translation Question into a Checking Question by asking the following questions. The first question asks you to identify how each specific phrase was translated into your language. The second question asks people in the church to determine if your translation of the phrase expresses the meaning clearly, accurately, and naturally. Look at the following examples to see how to change Translation Questions into Checking Questions:

Translation Question Example 1 to proclaim the good news about Jesus Paul and Silas traveled to Philippi for the purpose of preaching the gospel. The gospel is the good news that Jesus saves people from their sins if they will believe in Jesus. How would you express to proclaim the good news about Jesus to mean to tell other people the message about how Jesus can save people from their sins?

Translation Question Example 2 a merchant Paul and Silas met a woman named Lydia at the place by the river. She owned a business and sold items to make money. How would you express a merchant to mean a business owner who sells items for a profit?

Translation Question Example 3 so Paul and Silas baptized them The jailer and his whole family followed Paul's instructions. They believed in Jesus. The result of this was Paul and Silas baptized them. How would you express so Paul and Silas baptized them to mean the result of the jailer and his family believing in Jesus that Paul and Silas baptized all of them?

You can change these into Checking Questions like this:

Checking Question Example 1 to proclaim the good news about Jesus How did you translate to proclaim the good news about Jesus? Does it mean to tell other people the message about how Jesus can save people from their sins?

Checking Question Example 2 a merchant How did you translate a merchant? Does it mean a business owner who sells items for a profit?

Checking Question Example 3 so Paul and Silas baptized them How did you translate so Paul and Silas baptized them? Does it mean the result of the jailer and his family believing in Jesus that Paul and Silas baptized all of them?

Record Feedback Discuss the Checking Questions with your church community, and record any feedback on your translation draft. Pay attention to parts of your translation that are translated well and parts of your translation that need correction.

Discuss and Revise After gathering feedback on your draft, discuss it together with your translation community and make appropriate revisions to your translation.

Record Translation Decisions *Update your translation decisions and record any new and noteworthy observations on the quality of your draft.
